Dear Harold,

Enclosed is a copy of the Prosch article. It seems to provide some possible ways of checking further on not only Prosch but on Birmingham activities in general.

I think we can get Sprague to retract some of his statements in the last article by him. In the meantime I will draw up a draft which I may send if he doesn't submit one himself. I think there is general agreement that all further articles by anyone will be submitted here first and referred to an established critic--most likely Sylvia or Paul--if there is any question about the accuracy of the contents. Probably, though, the damage is already done.
